

HYDE PARK DISTRICT

The first Fall meeting of the Corriganville Improvement Association will be held tomorrow evening in St Catherine's Hall.

In Cleary sq, yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, Thomas McGrath of Pine st fought four policemen, in the presence of a large crowd. Although but 5t 3in tall and weighing about 130 pounds, McGrath fought patrolmen Patrick Dervin, John Pelletier, George Anderson and Fred Brauneis, who finally picked him up bodily and carried him into the police station. McGrath had been taken from his house by patrolman Dervin and was going along peacefully until within a short distance of the police station, when he started the battle.

Lieut Daniel Egan, patrolmen John Pelletier and Thomas Meighan started today on their annual vacation. Returning to duty were Sergt George Keyes, patrolmen Radden, Callahan and McBrien.

As the result of numerous complaints of boys hanging around barns and riding teams, the police intend to put a stop to the practice at once.

Funeral services were held this afternoon for Mrs Florence A. Knecht, wife of Jacob F. Knecht, who died last Friday in the family residence, 130 Huntington av. Burial was private.

Miss Ethel Gray, daughter of Mr and Mrs Walter E. Gray of Hyde Park, and Theodore Drew Robbins, son of Mrs George L. Robbins of Cambridge, were married Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev William H. Dewart, rector of the Old North Church and formerly rector of Christ Church here. The bridesmaids were the Misses Marjorie Smith of Roslindale and Charlotte Kellar of Newton. The groom was attended by his brother, Donald L. Robbins of Tulsa, Ok. The ushers were Fred E. Steele Jr of Hyde Park, Arthur E. Eastman of Somerville and Harry L. Chisholm of Salem. The bride wore a gown of white georgette with lace trimmings, her veil was caught up with orange blossoms and she carried a shower of bride roses and valley lilies. Mr and Mrs Robbins left on a motor trip through New York State and the White Mountains and upon their return will reside in Cambridge.
